Work in pairs. Read the advert below and write a letter of application (150–180 words) to the Human Resource Department.

- Ask Ss to read the advert. Pre-teach some vocabulary items if necessary.
- Have Ss work in pairs. In stronger classes, ask Ss to discuss what qualities and experience they need to apply for the position of an English tutor and elicit the ideas from each group and write them on the board if necessary. In weaker classes, give Ss some suggested ideas on the qualities and experience they need to apply for the position of an English tutor.
- Ask them to refer to the sample letter of application in Unit 5 and review the organization of a letter of application.
- Give Ss enough time to write a letter of application using the information in the box. Set a time limit depending on the Ss' ability level.
- Walk around the class and offer help.
- If time allows, ask Ss to swap their letters of application with a partner for peer review. Encourage them to make revisions based on peer feedback and then proofread it carefully for any mechanical mistakes such as spelling, punctuation, and capitalisation.
- Collect Ss' letters of application to mark and provide written feedback in the next lesson.

- Read the advert.
- Work in pairs and examine the sample.
- Write a letter of application using the information in the box.

Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to apply for the post of an English tutor that you advertised on your website. I am in my last year of secondary school. Last summer, I worked as a volunteer teaching assistant for the 'Education for All' project. I helped students learn English at a primary school. My responsibilities included checking students' attendance and homework. I also organised extracurricular activities to help children practise their English. I love working and interacting with children aged 6-10. I consider myself to be a sociable, caring and patient person. I understand that being a teaching assistant is not an easy job, but I will try my best. I would be delighted to meet you person to discuss application. I am available for an interview any afternoon during the week. If my application is successful, I will be free to start working after the 30th October. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours faithfully, Binh

e. Assessment

- Teacher's observation on Ss' performance.
- Teacher's feedback and peers' feedback.

4. CONSOLIDATION (3 mins)

a. Wrap-up

- T asks Ss to talk about what they have learnt in the lesson.

b. Homework
